FOR THE

TOWN OF CARMEL

FOR THE

YEAR ENDING FEBRUARY 27TH,

1892

BANGOR:

BANGOR PUBLISHING COMPANY.

1892.

OUR COMPETITORS

DISMAY!

Are dismayed at the run we are getting in the CLOTHING Business, and wonder how it all comes about.

“At a Great Pennyworth
PAUSE AWHILE;
Many are Ruined by Buying
‘BARGAINS.’”

SMITH—Oh, where did you get that Suit?

JONES—This suit is ALL WOOL, and I bought it of “OAK & CLARK” for $5.50 and an OVERCOAT of the same quality for $5.00.

SMITH—Are they selling out their goods at “half price” or is it a “bankrupt stock?”

JONES—Nonsense; no one sells goods at less than cost. These are the same prices they have been selling for right through the season.

SMITH—Do they sell all their goods at prices as reasonable as these?

JONES—Certainly; Boys’ Clothing, Hats, Caps, Outside Shirts, McIntosh and Rubber Coats, Underwear, Neckwear, Trunks, Valises and Extension Cases, at LOW BUT STEADY PRICES, and any time a day you may happen to go in there, you will see their large store full of customers.

SMITH—I have noticed that; how quickly people find out the dealers who always give them a dollar’s worth for a dollar without trying to make them believe they are giving them a dollar’s worth for fifty cents. No more running after bargains by me. “Experience keeps a dear school, but fools will learn of no other.” I will remember the place,

OAK & CLARK, 45 W. Market Sq., Bangor.

And also that all goods not satisfactory upon examination can be returned and money refunded.
