I am still at the old stand, the most centrally located Restaurant in Bangor for out of town people.

Just drop in and get a DINNER or LUNCH.

I AM IN BUSINESS FOR MY HEALTH;
I DO NOT CARE FOR YOUR TRADE.

But for the sake of getting some much needed exercise I like to walk around and display my goods. So I shall be greatly pleased if you will call at my store and make some work for me, by inducing me to show you what I have.

I am holding a reception every day in the week, and I do wish you would come and help fill the store and keep up the appearance of trade—for I sometimes fear I shall get lonesome with only 50 or 100 customers a day.

By the way, while I do not ask you to purchase—good health being my chief reason for keeping my store open—if you see anything on the counters or shelves that pleases your fancy and you think you would like, YOU CAN HAVE IT.

Of course I shall dread to see an empty store, but if my health does not improve I shall buy other goods to take the place of those I sell—for I must keep busy.
