

Date: Sunday, December 2nd

COMMUNITY TREE LIGHTING 3:30 PM

Simpson Memorial Library, 8 Plymouth RD, Carmel

The holidays are time for reflection and thoughts of people and places that are dear to us. With that thought Ms. Becky, Library Director and the Board of Trustees of the Simpson Memorial Library have decided to not only have a Community Tree Lighting but a “Memory Tree” as well. For anyone interested in making an ornament in memory/honor of a special person to hang on the tree the library will have two craft times available: Tuesday Nov. 20th from 2:30 to 6:30, the Creative Craft Corner for Kids and Thursday, Nov. 29th, 11 a.m. to 6:30 p.m. for all ages.

Music at 3:30 by Singer, Erica Dawson

4:00 tree lighting with Ms. Becky

4:10 music with Sarah Holt, of Carmel

Luminary walk and refreshments after caroling.

We would like to thank the Carmel Historical Society, C.H.S. for partnering with us on event. Light refreshments will be served after the tree lighting at the Paul Haskell House, C.H.S. next door. Ornaments may be left on the tree or taken home after the event.

Erica Dawson: Erica Dawson was raised in Herriman, UT. She has been singing and recording music since she was 14. She has been married to a “born and raised” Maine man for 17 years. She is a Nashville recording artist and has released three albums that still get international attention today. Her hobbies include: horseback riding, spending time with her family and teaching vocal lessons to children.

Sarah Holt: Originally from Carmel, Sarah went to USM and graduated with a degree in music education and classical voice. She lived in Portland for several years. Sarah has been a music teacher for all ages as well as a choir director. She has taught private lessons and is currently living in Carmel and is interested in teaching private lessons.

